OUR VISION -----

The way to travel has changed completely. Thanks to the Internet and new technologies you can plan far in advance the places you would like to visit. However, if you would really like to live the location and discover its deep essence, you have to rely on who has the key of knowledge. Feelings from Italy is the missing link between the traveller and the location. ## HANDCRAFTED CERAMICS -----

The word "ceramics" comes from the Greek "Kéramos" which means "clay for plates"; our tour will begin from a place where the clay is processed. One of the last remaining master craftsmen will show you how to make and personalise marvellous and prestigious ceramic creations.

Archaeological findings proved that wine arrived in the Chianti region with the Etruscans.
